JL: Re Post "Jury Awards Man $300,000" story, I do not recall the Williams firm handling other cases of this kind. Webster may be its expert or one of its experts in this kind of matter or it may be a new speciality. My files have a Wolff in a noise case, some aspect of printing and against the Post. Perhaps after that experience Williams, as counsel for the Post, decided to hire him if it is the same Wolff. The one I remember was, I think, a Nader man. I seem to recall only one "f" in the name...I think I also missed this story when it appeared. Thanks. HW 9/4/75
